ANTI-HARASSMENT POLICY

Providing a safe and welcoming environment for all our attendees is very important to us. Capital City Comic Con has a ZERO TOLERANCE policy for harassment of any kind.

Our Code of Conduct is online on our FAQ page. If you are being harassed or made to feel uncomfortable, please tell a volunteer immediately. Security will be on-site throughout the event and will handle issues of harassment as per our Code of Conduct. Please help us in this effort by kindly standing up for anyone who you see being harassed or reporting any harassment of another attendee to a volunteer or to security.

If a person (including exhibitors, volunteers, staff, attendees, speakers, media and security) engages in harassing behaviour, Capital City Comic Con staff will take effective action that they deem appropriate immediately, including expulsion from the Con with no refund. If necessary, we will contact local law enforcement, provide an escort, a safe place or otherwise assist anyone experiencing harassment.

COSPLAY IS NOT CONSENT

Please, keep your hands to yourself. If you would like a picture with a Cosplay guest or attendee, ask for permission first and please respect their decision if they decline. If you are in cosplay and someone is making you feel uncomfortable, tell a volunteer immediately.

OUR VOLUNTEERS

Our volunteers are here to help make Capital City Comic Con run smoothly and to make sure you have a great time. If you have any questions find a CapCity Volunteer in a teal shirt near you! Please remember, these generous people are giving their time to us to ensure your con experience is the best it can be. Please treat them with respect and kindness.

SENSORY ROOM

Conventions are fantastic, but we know they can also be overwhelming. Our sensory room located downstairs in the VCC - Sooke Room, is a quiet and calm space to decompress.

MEDICAL ASSISTANCE

If you are having an issue that requires medical attention, please find the nearest volunteer. A volunteer will direct you to the first aid station. St. John Ambulance will be on site at Booth 104 in the Crystal Garden - Lower Level. Our security also has first aid training if needed.

PANELS, AUTOGRAPH & SIGNING LINES

If waiting in long lines is not a possibility for you, please speak to a Capital City Comic Con volunteer so that they can assist you.

ACCESSIBILITY

The Victoria Conference Centre is fully accessible. To find elevators and ramps please see our show maps. Need assistance? Please ask a volunteer.

WEAPONS CHECK

Your cosplay weapons must be checked and tagged at the Weapons Checkpoint each day. Even if you come the following day with the same weapon, you will need to recheck it to get the new tag designated for that day. Weapons Check is in the Ticket Area in the VCC Upper Pavilion and just up the stairs/ elevator at the entrance in Crystal Garden. Our Weapons Policy is on our online FAQ page or at the booth. The Weapon Master's decision on your weapon is final. If your weapon is not approved, you can leave it in the Weapons Check area until you leave or take it out of the convention and enter again without it.

CAN I TAKE PHOTOS?

Also, filming of panels and Q&As is not permitted in any way. If you're seen to be filming, you will be asked by staff or a volunteer to cease recording and delete the video. Please note that taking photos of guests while they are at their tables is frowned upon. No one likes feeling like an animal in a zoo! Lastly, please leave your selfie sticks at home, we have plenty of volunteers happy to assist in getting your perfect photo!

Cosplay Guests

MELTINGMIRROR Booth 1

MeltingMirror is a Canadian cosplayer and an International Costuming Guild master-level cosplayer who has been creating costumes since 2004. She is a fan of variety, choosing characters from different media (anime, gaming, comics, movies, & original designs) and taking on many different skills including armor making, leatherwork, wig styling, woodworking, beading, and more. When she isn't competing in masquerades, she is judging them, and running panels at conventions. Her work has been published in magazines such as COSMODE and CosplayGen, and featured on websites such as Kotaku, Dorkly, MTV, and Deviantart.

JENILEE COSPLAY Booth 2

Jeni Lee (Jenilee Cosplay) is a Vancouver Island based cosplayer. Combining her long-term passion for art and video games, she dabbled in creating costumes of her favourite video game and TV show characters. Falling in love with the community, she has attended many local and international conventions, won several awards at cosplay competitions, and has made guest appearances at conventions and gaming tournaments. Attending these events has allowed her to continuously grow and develop new skills and, most importantly, indulge in her passion in the world of cosplay.

GENERAL CELES COSPLAY Booth 3

General Celes Cosplay learned to sew at a young age, and joined the cosplay community in 2009. She has built numerous costumes over the past 12 years constantly learning new techniques and adding new materials to her builds. Occasionally competing and placing in various cosplay contests over the years, she looks forward to her first experience of being a guest and judging the cosplay contest at Capital City Comic Con this year.

KATY DECORAY Booth 4

Artist, cosplayer, and adorkable badass. Based in Vancouver BC, Canada, Katy DeCobray's origins are shrouded in mystery and rumour. She first appeared at San Diego Comic Con in 2009 and has been entertaining fans at conventions across the West coast ever since. Katy DeCobray is a master of intrigue and disguise, creating costumes that draw from a variety of sources from comic books to anime and video games, although she has a particular penchant for personating villains in tight black spandex and impossibly high heels. You will most likely find her in the center of attention, nerding up your selfies, and cursing her poor choices in footwear.

What are Commissions?

From the beginning, Comic Cons started to celebrate comic books and comic book culture. Comic book fans gathered to meet creators, experts and each other. To this day, Artist Alley and our Creator Guests are at the heart of our convention. After all, if it weren't for their creations and art, we wouldn't love all the characters that we do today!

Marcelo Matere Art

Cary Nord Art

Cary Nord Art

Commissions are a great way to take home a custom, one-of-a-kind piece of art from your favourite comic book creator or artist! You get to be a part of the creative process and let your imagination connect with the artist's skills. What you come away with is a unique memento that will always remind you of your experience at Capital City Comic Con.

TYPES OF COMMISSIONS

Each creator or artist has their own unique offerings. Once you and the artist have come up with an idea, they dive into the sketching, inking and colouring of your piece. It's a lot of work! These are some of the most common kinds of commissions:

- Bust Sketch: A sketch of a character that focuses on the head and shoulders.
- Full Figure: You guessed it, a sketch of the characters full body!
- Full Figure with Background: Pretty self-explanatory, you get a full character set in the scene of a cool background.

COMMISSIONS COSTS

Every artist will have a different fee for their time and talent. However, commissions can range anywhere from $50 - $500, so it's important to know what to ask for and what to expect.

Commissions in pencil are some of the most affordable whereas if you want the artist to take it to the next level and ink/colour their work as well, that will take some more time and cost a bit more.

If you have a budget in mind, share that with the artist and you might be able to come up with a great piece of art that you'll have forever!

TIPS

Meeting Your Favourite Guest

OK, so the moment has arrived. You're in front of one of CapCity's Guests but you're not sure what to say or do? Well we've got some tips and suggestions to help you get the most out of your guest interactions!

#1

If you find yourself in a conversation with someone you really admire, there's no point in pretending you're not a huge fan and that they didn't have an impact on your life. Everyone likes to hear that they've made a difference in someone else's life or that you admire their work, no matter how cheesy or dorky you might think it sounds. Trust me, they'll be happy to know they had such an impact on you.

#2

Remember, the artists, writers, cosplayers, actors, and creators who you love from afar, are still just people — and as much as their livelihoods often depend on their fans, being around so many strangers can be an exhausting experience. It's important to make sure you're as respectful and chill as you can be.

#3

Always ask permission before touching. As many of us can relate we don't like to be touched without permission and some celebrities have a no-touching policy for personal reasons. Please ask before hugging or touching and remember, ALWAYS keep it respectful and appropriate.

#4

Be mindful of their time. Make sure your conversation or questions are relevant to their work — we all dream of becoming best friends with our favourite character or hearing every last bit of juicy, behind the scenes gossip or telling them about how their character got us through hard times, but long conversations hold up the line. Most of our guests are on a tight schedule and we want to make sure everyone gets their few minutes to meet our guests!

Memories That Last a Lifetime

SAVE MONEY:

Want to know a trick on how to get a professional photo with your favourite guest AND save some money?? Find 3 friends or family members and do a group photo! Epic Photos allows up to 4 individuals per Photo Op ticket, not including talent except if noted. They can also email you a copy or do extra prints for only $10 each!

GET THE PERFECT MEMORY:

Plan ahead! This is so important during paid photo ops, especially with a group, when you're only going to be able to get a couple of seconds with a person before you have to take a picture together. Doing a bit of online research ahead of time, and then deciding how to pose will make sure you get the lasting memory you've always dreamed of!

BE RESPECTFUL OF TIME:

At photo ops, please remember, that this isn't the time to chat with the guest for too long because other people are waiting. If you are wanting to meet the guests, they will be at their autograph booth after their photo ops where you can tell them why you love them so much! You can also purchase an autograph and get them to sign your Epic Photos picture for an extra special bonus!

Since 2005, Garrett has taken an extended break from Hollywood. "HACKSAW" JIM DUGGAN

A true red-blooded American, the tough but lovable big guy always marched to the ring with a 2x4 slung over his shoulder and a red, white and blue flag gripped tightly in his hand. For more than two decades, "Hacksaw" defended America's honor in the ring and enjoyed distinction as one of the most recognizable Superstars in the world.

It's a fascinating process full of happy accidents and beautiful failures. Plus, I'm entertaining as hell and swear a lot!
